
IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES,

FEBRUARY 28, 1825.

Read twice, and referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

AN ACT

For the relief of Michael McKewan.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 the Attorney General of the United States be authorized and 4 directed to cause satisfaction in full to be entered upon certain
5 Judgments of the United States, against Michael McKewan, up-
6 on condition that the said Michael McKewan, or his legal re-
7 presentatives, execute a full release of all claims of the said Mi-
8 chael McKewan, for an assignment of an account of John Mor-
9 ris, a wardmaster, in the Revolutionary War, for one hundred
10 and seven dollars, forty-four ninetieths, and also for two final
11 settlement certificates. The one of them numbered eighty
12 one thousand seven hundred and fifty-four for eighty dollars,
13 and the other of them numbered eighty-two thousand one hun-

14 dred and fifty-four, for forty-three dollars thirty ninetieths, as 15 well as for all other claims of the said Michael McKewan, a-
16 gainst the United States.

February 28, 1825.

Passed the House of Representatives.

Attest.

M. ST. CLAIR CLARKE, C. H. R.